Owego Gymnastics and Activity Center
A Great Community Organization

..... I have been impressed with the level of involvement Owego Gymnastics and Activity Center (OGAC) has with the educational community. From the home school program to the programming for special needs children, OGAC has shown that it is not a simple gymnastics club but rather a valuable sports oriented educational facility. This non-profit program should not be compared or confused with the usual "gymnastics clubs" in the area. The broad range of educational programs offered by OGAC sets it apart from all other programs that I have seen in the area.

Judith M. Quigley, Esq.

.....It has been well documented that a healthy and active lifestyle is beneficial for all ages. Children that have been exposed and encouraged to be active at an early age continue to be physically active as adults. OGAC's programs not only encourage an active lifestyle but also teach fundamental educational concepts and life skills. By incorporating basic educational instruction into their programs the Center helps preschoolers to be ready for their first school experiences and for those older children OGAC offers enrichment of those concepts being taught in school.

Martin L. Borko, Chair, Tioga County Legislature

.....the Center has been an asset to our community in our fight against childhood obesity within our community. Students who routinely attend the facility consistently score much better on physical fitness tests that are administered in physical education classes. Many of these students also quickly master new skills introduced in our comprehensive program. Please know that these students did not always excel physically. Since attending the gymnastics center however, students continue to show great improvements in their confidence, self-esteem, and physical fitness.

Jessica Bilard, Rob Glielmi, Korn Rubino, Steve Virkler, Jason Westervelt, Greg Woolever and MaryAnn Van Houten
Physical Education Teachers, Owego-Apalachin School District

.....provided us with physical activities that greatly helped our preschool aged students to stretch their muscles, follow directions in a group, take turns, and build up their self-esteem. Many of the preschoolers have Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy needs, and the Owego Gymnastics leaders are very in tune to their needs and abilities providing an educational, yet fun experience to body awareness and exercise.

Karen Mayer, MSED, Special Education Teacher, Franziska Racker Centers

.....I have observed the Owego Gymnastics and Activity Center programs are not merely recreational. The very capable staff instructs children in the value of physical discipline, working together, and striving toward personal goals. The program draws in many families from the community, and through conversations I had with parents who come to observe the sessions I learned just how much they value what their children are learning through this program. I also found that Jana and her staff to be wonderful leaders who have a deep interest in the growth and development of the children under their instruction.

Dennis L. King, Senior Pastor, Owego First Church of the Nazarene

.....the children participating, most of whom would not have had the opportunity to learn gymnastics or participate in an organized physical educational endeavor due to the expense and travel it would involve to travel to Owego, Ithaca or Elmira for classes. Had it not been for Owego Gymnastics and Activity Center, many children would not enjoy this activity.

Patti Mickelinc, Director, SVE Community & Fitness Center
